Re: State of Vermont v. Safety-Kleen Systems, Inc.

Dear Ms. Waters:

Enclosed for filing please find the parties' Pleadings by Agreement and Stipulation for the Entry of Consent Order and Final Judgment Order. Additionally, for the Court's consideration, please find the parties' proposed Consent Order and Final Judgment Order.

To facilitate public participation in proposed settlements of civil environmental enforcement case, it is the policy of the Vermont Attorney General's Office to post all such proposed settlements on its website at the time of their submission to the Court for a period of 21 days. This posting provides notice to the public who may seek to intervene under Rule 24 of the Vermont Rules of Civil Procedure for the purpose of presenting information or argument to the Court relevant to the proposed settlement.

Consistent with this policy, the State requests that the Court refrain from taking action on the proposed settlement for the duration of the 21-day posting period. Please do not hesitate to contact me with questions about the Attorney General's policy.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Ingraham
Paralegal
