

Conference call on Draft 2011 Guide to Disclosure of Samples – 10/04/2010

The draft of the Draft 2011 Guide to the Disclosure of Samples is now posted on the Vermont Attorney General's website, along with a draft reporting form. Under 2011 Guide to Vermont's Law on Disclosure of Samples, click Draft 2011 Guide and draft samples disclosure form. I was not able to get it out to you Friday as the office closed early due to a directive that State employees leave Montpelier because of threatened flooding. All is well now.

We will have a conference call to get your feedback on these documents on:
