Dear Sample A. Sample:

Northeast Rehabilitation Hospital Network (“NRHN”) is writing to inform you of an event that may impact the privacy of some of your personal information. We are providing you with information about the event, our response, and information related to what you may do to better protect your information, should you feel it necessary to do so.

What Happened? On May 22, 2024, NRHN became aware of suspicious activity in its computer network and immediately launched an investigation to determine the nature and scope of the activity. The investigation determined that an unauthorized individual gained access to certain NRHN systems between May 13, 2024 and May 22, 2024, and viewed or copied certain information stored on those systems. We then proceeded to conduct a thorough and time-intensive review of the impacted information to ensure we identified all individuals with information potentially at risk, which was completed on November 27, 2024. Now that the investigation is complete, we are contacting all potentially impacted individuals.

What Information Was Involved? Our investigation determined that the following types of your information were included in the impacted files: name, [Extra1 -data elements].

What We Are Doing. NRHN takes this event and information security very seriously. Following our initial discovery of suspicious activity, we immediately took steps to ensure the security of our systems and investigate the event. Notice of the event was provided to local and national media outlets and posted on our website. We also promptly notified the federal law enforcement and relevant regulatory bodies of this event. As part of NRHN’s ongoing commitment to the privacy of information in our care, we have implemented additional technical security measures to strengthen the security of our systems. We also have reviewed and enhanced existing data privacy policies and procedures.

As an added precaution we are offering you access to twenty-four (24) months of credit monitoring and identity theft protection services through Experian at no cost to you. Enrollment instructions are enclosed with this letter. We encourage you to enroll in these services as we are unable to act on your behalf to do so.

What You Can Do. We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud, to monitor your accounts for any unusual activity, and to report any instances of theft or fraud to law enforcement. Please review the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Personal Information for useful information on what you can do to better protect against possible misuse of your information. You can also enroll to receive the complimentary credit monitoring services that we are offering to you.

For More Information. We understand that you may have questions about this incident that are not addressed in this notice. If you have additional questions or concerns, please call our toll-free dedicated assistance line at 833-931-4246. This toll-free line is available Monday – Friday from 9:00 am ET and 9:00pm ET (excluding major US holidays).

Sincerely,

Northeast Rehabilitation Hospital Network

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer’s name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

Consumers may further educate themselves regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps they can take to protect their personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or their state attorney general. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. Consumers can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. Consumers have the right to file a police report if they ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity
