Hi Paul, as we discussed, we have a significant volume of potentially responsive records to your request and will need to assert our right to additional time pursuant to 1 VSA 318(a)(5). Thank you for narrowing the request as we discussed – and let me know if I have this right – to exclude: filings in EELI, references to Judge Teachout (all references I am seeing so far do not relate to the public records act); and “boilerplate” use of the term “public records act” in email signatures and state contracts. We hope to be back in touch on Thursday of next week. Any concerns, just let me know. Thanks and have a good weekend,

Sarah
