Notice of Data Breach

Dear [REDACTED]:

At APG Media Group of Southern Wisconsin, LLC (APG), owner/operator of the Janesville Gazette, we take your privacy seriously. For that reason, we are writing to provide you with notice of a recent cybersecurity event that involved your personal information. You are receiving this notice because you either are or were an employee of APG and/or Bliss Communications or were listed as a dependent of an APG and/or Bliss Communications employee. Consistent with our commitment to protect the information of our current and former employees and their dependents, we have investigated the incident and, as a precautionary measure, we are notifying you of the event and the additional protections that are available to you listed below.

What Happened

On June 7, 2022, APG became aware that an unauthorized third party had gained access to some of the Janesville Gazette's systems and servers on May 25, 2022. Immediately upon learning of the incident, APG isolated the impacted environment and began an investigation with the help of a leading forensic security firm that specializes in data security and ransomware incidents. As part of our investigation, APG also worked with third-party data mining experts to identify who was impacted by this incident. These experts analyzed the impacted data to determine what personal information may have been accessed. After the investigation, it was determined that your personal information was accessed and/or acquired by the third party during the incident. While APG does not have any evidence of fraud using your personal information at this time, we are nonetheless informing you of this incident because we take this matter seriously. While APG did notify law enforcement of this incident, this notice was not delayed at the request of law enforcement.

The request must also include a copy of a government-issued identification card and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement. It is essential that each copy be legible, and display your name, current mailing address, and the date of issue.
