Dear Mohanad Al Hilfi,

Thank you for your second public records request dated January 31, 2023, in which you request records related to code violations at 1167 Hartford Avenue in White River Junction, Vermont. As stated in my previous response to you, the Attorney General's Office is not the custodian of these types of records. Please contact the relevant municipality for records related to code violations in that city or town. In this case, White River Junction is a village within the town of Hartford. This link provides a list of contact information for all cities and towns in Vermont:

I hope this information is helpful to you.

Best,
