Annabelle,

Thank you for your email. It is difficult to accurately predict how much this narrowing will reduce the costs, but we will reduce the requested amount by $500 to $2,070.40. Please send a check in that amount to the address stated in the email below. We will proceed with processing the request after receiving the check. Thanks again.

Hello Mr. Persampieri,

My apologies for the delayed response.

My colleagues have decided that it is alright to narrow the request to exclude the email signature block. We agree that items are responsive if they include "Climate Change Litigation" in the signature block and also contain "climate change" or one of the other search terms elsewhere in the document – in which case, the items would be picked up for review even when excluding the signature block.

We are also wondering if this affects the cost estimate in any way. Once we have your confirmation on cost, we will send a check to the address you provided.

Thank you for your help!
Annabelle Smith
