Please describe the records you are requesting and provide as much specificity as possible, including applicable date ranges.

To Whom It May Concern,

I hope you are doing well. Please consider this a public records request under 1 V.S.A. §§ 315-320. I am requesting copies of the following:

Lists of all recusals and disclosures from Supreme Court justices between Jan. 1, 2012 to present. This should include civil and criminal cases, even if those are separate lists. Any and all Data Dictionaries/Code Sheets available for any of the files I might receive, as they are available.

Please send all of these records in a machine-readable format of CSV or .xls/.xlsx.

I recognize that you may charge reasonable costs for copies, as well as for personnel time needed to comply with this request. However, because I am requesting this information as a member of the media — not for commercial purposes — I am asking that you please consider waiving any fees associated with this request. And, if any fees are required, I request that you let me know before sending any records. If a fee waiver is not deemed possible, I also request that you let me know before sending any records and please provide a detailed fee estimate.

Your prompt response is appreciated. If access to the records I am requesting will take longer than the 10 days required by the Vermont Public Records Act, I ask that you please contact me with information about when I might expect copies or the ability to inspect the requested records. Also, if there is the possibility of obtaining some documents before others, I request that you email or otherwise make the documents available to me when they are ready. If any or all of this request is not possible or denied, please cite each specific exemption you feel justifies the refusal to release the information or the other reason for it and notify me of the appeal procedures available to me under the law.

Thank you so much,

Lindsay Shachnow
