Subject: Public Records Request Form

Hi, Johnny,

Thank you for your voicemail in response to my request for clarification of your public records request. The Vermont Attorney General's Office does not require its employees to sign non-disclosure agreements. The Attorney General's Office therefore has no records responsive to your request.

As mentioned in my follow-up voicemail, the Attorney General's Office does have a guideline document for interns and temporary employees which contains a confidentiality agreement, addressing the confidentiality of information, documents, and e-mails obtained during the course of an intern or temporary employee's time with the Office. If you would like to request a copy of this document, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Lauren Jandl
Chief of Staff
