[Re: Notice of Data Breach]

Dear [NAME],

On May 31, 2023, Progress Software announced a previously unknown (Zero-Day) vulnerability affecting its MOVEit® Transfer application (SecureFT). City National Bank of Florida (“CNBF”), alongside many other organizations, utilizes this application for managed file transfers and other business purposes for a subset of our clients. We are unfortunately one of many organizations affected by this issue. This Zero Day vulnerability has impacted thousands of organizations, across all industries, and in many geographies around the world.

Please note, this has not, and will not, affect our ability to provide quality banking and financial services to our valued account holders and corporate clients. Now, as always, we are strictly focused on protecting our clients’ deposits and transactions. Importantly, it is still safe to interact with our corporate systems, including online banking.

Our investigation determined that your personal information held at CNBF was affected. We are notifying you and providing tools you can use to help protect against possible identity theft or fraud, should you feel it is appropriate to do so.

WHAT HAPPENED: After Progress Software’s announcement on May 31st, CNBF immediately began investigating to determine if it was among one of the thousands of Progress Software customers affected. We engaged third-party cybersecurity and forensics experts to assist us in our remediation and investigative efforts and notified law enforcement. On June 3rd, our investigation identified that certain information on the MOVEit Transfer application was removed on May 29-30th by an unauthorized party.

WHAT INFORMATION WAS INVOLVED: The information involved may have included your first and last name, date of birth, bank account number, Social Security Number, email and mailing addresses.

WHAT WE ARE DOING: Upon being notified of Progress Software’s Zero-Day vulnerability, we immediately took the application offline and have applied the available patches issued by Progress Software to fix the vulnerability. We have implemented a number of additional security measures to increase our ability to monitor and detect any suspicious account activity. Although we are actively monitoring for suspicious account activity, if you are concerned and would like us to discuss options for changing your account number, please contact us at the number below.

To help relieve concerns and restore confidence following this incident, we are offering identity theft protection services through IDX, A ZeroFox Company, the data breach and recovery services expert. IDX identity protection services include: 24 months of credit and CyberScan monitoring, a $1,000,000 insurance reimbursement policy, and fully managed ID theft recovery services. For residents of all states:

You may obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, whether or not you suspect any unauthorized activity on your account. To order your free credit report, please visit www.annualcreditreport.com, or call toll-free at 1-877-322-8228. You can also order your annual free credit report by mailing a completed Annual Credit Report Request Form (available at www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/0155-free-credit-reports) to: Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA, 30348-5281.

Fraud Alerts: You can place fraud alerts with the three credit bureaus by phone and online with Equifax (https://assets.equifax.com/assets/personal/Fraud_Alert_Request_Form.pdf), Experian (www.experian.com/fraud/center.html) or Transunion (www.transunion.com/fraud-victim-resource/place-fraud-alert). A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. Initial fraud alerts last for one year. Victims of identity theft can also get an extended fraud alert for seven years. The phone numbers for all three credit bureaus are at the bottom of this page.

Monitoring: You should always remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing payment card account statements and monitoring your credit reports for suspicious or unusual activity.

Security Freeze: You also have the right to place a security freeze on your credit report. A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you need to make a request to each consumer reporting agency by visiting their websites below or by mail. In order to place the security freeze for yourself, your spouse, or a minor under the age of 16, you will need to provide your name, address for the past two years, date of birth, Social Security number, proof of identity and proof of address as requested by the credit reporting company. After receiving your freeze request, each credit reporting company will send you a confirmation letter containing a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password, which will be required to lift the freeze, which you can do either temporarily or permanently. It is free to place, lift, or remove a security freeze.
