Dear Alexandra:

I write in response to your public records act request dated August 25, 2023. Pursuant to 1 V.S.A. § 318(b)(5), the Attorney General's Office will need to invoke its right to the 10-day extension to respond to your request. The extension is necessary for the proper processing of the request because there is a need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a large number of records, and I need to work with individuals from two or more parts of the Office to respond to the request. With the 10-day extension, I anticipate being able to provide a response to your request on September 11.

Regards,
Laura
