Re: Public Records Request – Paul Shanley

Dear Ms. Coughlin,

We are in receipt of your request for records that was received by the Vermont Attorney General's Office on March 25, 2024.

The Attorney General's Office acknowledges that it possesses records it believes may be responsive to your request. Your request requires the review of a records that are not presently in the immediate possession of the Attorney General's Office, but held at an off-site storage facility. Therefore, the Attorney General's Office will exercise its right to the additional time necessary to obtain those records and prepare a response to your request. That response will be within ten business days of your request.

Sincerely,

Paul A. Barkus
