RE: Notice of Data Privacy Event

Dear _____,

S&F Concrete Contractors, Corp. (“S&F” or “We”) writes to notify you of an incident that may affect the privacy of some of your information. S&F was in possession of your personal information in connection with your current or former employment with S&F. This letter includes details of the incident, our response, and steps you can take to better protect against possible misuse of your information, should you feel it appropriate to do so.

What Happened? Earlier this year, S&F discovered suspicious activity on certain computer systems. We immediately launched an investigation with the assistance of third-party specialists. Our investigation determined there was unauthorized access to our network between May 5, 2024, and May 20, 2024. While our investigation did not reveal that any data was copied from our environment, we undertook a comprehensive review of the files which were present on the servers subject to unauthorized access to determine whether these files contained any sensitive information and to whom it relates. On July 19, 2024, we determined the files contained information related to you.

What Information Was Involved? S&F determined the following information was present within the potentially affected files: your name and Social Security number, and potentially one or more of driver’s license, state or federal identification number, financial account information, and health insurance information if provided to S&F in connection with your employment.

What S&F Is Doing. S&F takes the confidentiality, privacy, and security of information in our care seriously. We reported this incident to law enforcement, and we have taken steps to implement additional safeguards and review policies and procedures relating to data privacy and security.

As an added precaution, we are offering you complimentary access to Single Bureau Credit Monitoring/Single Bureau Credit Report/Single Bureau Credit Score services at no charge. These services provide you with alerts for twenty-four (24) months from the date of enrollment when changes occur to your credit file. Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer’s name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
