Good Morning,

I represent Appellee the Town of St. Johnsbury in Vermont Human Rights Commission v. Town of St. Johnsbury, currently before the Vermont Supreme Court in Docket No. 23-AP-394.

Due to an oversight on my part, I did not inform the Court of out-of-the-country travel plans with my adult sons, and oral argument has been scheduled for September 24, 2024, at 9:00 a.m., when I am scheduled to still be away. The Court has offered that I may ask if any parties scheduled for argument on the morning of September 25, 2024, would be willing to switch oral argument time slots. Appellant's counsel in my case is available September 25. By way of full disclosure, please note that I would only have to cut my travel one-day short if there is no opportunity to swap hearing slots with someone.

If you are agreeable to switching your oral argument time slot to September 24, at 9:00 a.m., may I ask that you please let me know no later than Monday, August 26, so I can file a timely follow-up with the Court. FYI, a copy of the Court's entry order concerning my scheduling conflict is attached.

Many thanks for considering this request.

Best wishes,

John
