Dear Joshua Bowman,

Thank you for your public records request below. Your request is unclear as you do not specify what type of records you are seeking.

Based on the information provided, I understand your request may relate to a recent Wells Fargo data breach. Please note that our office has no records related to you, or to any other individual, in connection with the 2024 Wells Fargo data breach. The limited information we have about that breach has been posted publicly to our website. You can see these records in another recent public records request response, available here: Layman response to Adams

If you are seeking some other form of public records, please clarify your request.

Thank you,
