Re: Vermont Public Records Act request dated November 4, 2019

Dear Mr. Glawe:

Our response to your Vermont Public Records Act (“PRA”) request dated November 4, 2019, can be found at on our website. Due to the quantity of documents, there are two tranches of documents. You may access tranche one here and tranche two here. Your revised request asked for the following documents:

1. A copy of the log the Attorney General’s Office (the “AGO”) keeps to track its PRA requests for requests dated from January 1, 2018 to November 4, 2019;
2. Communications, dated from January 1, 2017 to November 4, 2019, to/from Google and its representatives and the following: Members of the AGO’s antitrust team, the Chief of the Public Protection Division, the Attorney General, Deputy Attorney General, Chief of Staff, and Chief Assistant Attorney General;
3. Communications, dated from January 1, 2017 to November 4, 2019, to/from Facebook and its representatives, including those listed below, and the following: Members of the AGO’s antitrust team, the Chief of the Public Protection Division, the Attorney General, Deputy Attorney General, Chief of Staff, and Chief Assistant Attorney General.

Nicholas Sherman, Leonine Public Affairs
Claire Buckley, Leonine Public Affairs
Maggie Lenz, Leonine Public Affairs
Charles Storrow, Leonine Public Affairs
Kia Floyd, Politicom Law, LLP

Georgetown Global, Inc.

On December 26, 2019, I received your check made out to the State of Vermont in the amount of $393.54, the amount of our cost estimate. At the conclusion of our complying with your PRA request, the actual cost is less, $166.56. Therefore, the AGO business office will issue you a refund check in the amount of $226.98.

With regards to your first request, the AGO publishes to its website all PRA requests, responses, and related correspondence. You can find all of this information for the years requested at the “Open Government” tab on our website or at this link.

With regards to your second and third requests, some responsive documents have been redacted or withheld pursuant to 1 V.S.A. § 317. Three documents were withheld in their entirety. If you believe any of these documents have been withheld or redacted in error, you may appeal to Joshua Diamond, Deputy Attorney General, by emailing ago.info@vermont.gov or mailing:

Josh Diamond, Deputy Attorney General
Office of the Attorney General

Thank you.

Sincerely,

/s/
