Re: Vermont Public Records Act requests, dated April 29, 2020 to May 5, 2020

Dear Mr. Shaddy:

I write in response to your pending requests for public records, dated April 29, 2020 to May 5, 2020. During this time, you made eight total requests for public records. Of these, all are pending. These requests include:

4/29/20	Records regarding the authority and jurisdiction of a "Judge Belcher" and a "State Prosecuting Attorney" of the "Office of State Prosecuting Attorneys."
4/29/20	Records regarding or identifying what Vermont Court a "Judge Belcher" is assigned, appointed, and/or elected serve on the bench of.
4/29/20	Records of the interests of the people of the state of Vermont a "State Prosecuting Attorney" of the "Office of State Prosecuting Attorneys" represents.
4/29/20	Records of Vermont laws which are "generally understood" not to apply to officers and staff of the Vermont Judicial Branch.

4/29/20	Records of the creation and function of Vermont governmental entity named the “Staff Office of the Attorney General”.
5/1/20	Records of an official of the State of Vermont prior to 2015 named a “State Prosecuting Attorney”.
5/2/20	Pursuant to the Vermont Attorney General’s statements re: historical information, please provide any records of a consent order or agreement, records of any parties entered into stated agreement, and any records defining their legal relationship.
5/5/20	Consistent with the Vermont Attorney General’s statements re: “historical” value of documents at a web link provided by the Vermont Attorney General, please provide me with any records of a complaint made by the Vermont Secretary of State or Vermont Office of Professional Regulation or “Office of the State Prosecuting Attorneys” or “Chief State Prosecuting Attorney”, to the Vermont State Board of Nursing concerning me and my nursing license.

For all of these requests, the Attorney General’s Office will need to invoke its right to an extension of the deadline, pursuant to the Vermont Public Records Act, of 10 business days. The new deadline for this batch of requests is May 19, 2020.

Sincerely,

Charity R. Clark
Chief of Staff
