If you are looking for Court records, you will need to contact the Judiciary. There is more information on their website here. If you are looking for records in the custody of the county prosecutor, you will need to contact the Caledonia County State's Attorney. Their contact information can be found here. Based on your description, my hunch is that the State's Attorney would have handled this case, not the Attorney General's Office. I will inquire and get back to you to confirm.

Thank you,
Charity

Hi,

He was convicted in 2001- possibly March in St Johnsbury with sex with a minor. I know he was found guilty. I was wondering if I could get records for this. Also was he ever on sex offender list? He isn't on there now and I didn't know their names came off.

Thank You

Dear Ms. Marble,

We have received your request for public records. If you would like records for which the Attorney General's Office is custodian, you will need to provide a description of the specific records you seek. More information about what the Attorney General's Office does can be found on our website here. If you seek records in the custody of another agency or department, you will need to contact that agency or department directly.

More information about access to public records, including a link to the Vermont Public Records Act, can be found on our website here.

I hope this is helpful to you. If you would like to move ahead with a public records request with our office, just let me know which specific records you seek.
