The Vermont environment is nice because it has very nice views and it is fun outside. I like the environment because there are beautiful animals. You can also go drive around on trails, you can also go drive boats in lakes and go fishing. You can also see the beautiful seasons.

Vermont has very nice places to visit.

You can also look at the nice houses. You also can go off-roading. There are also very beautiful mountains. There are also a lot of pets.

I also like riding my bike and my four wheeler and my snowmobile. And I also love going mudding with my family there side by side and my four wheeler. Also love going swimming and fishing. I like helping my family.

I love maple syrup in the winter. The weather is also nice in Vermont.

Vermont will soon be low on oxygen in Vermont because people are cutting down a lot of trees. In the summer I plant a lot of beautiful flowers. And also in the summer i like to go to my grams.

I really like the landscape in Vermont. And I like to carve pumpkins in the fall. I like to skip rocks in Vermont at lakes and ponds. I like to ride in my parents car to get lice cream. I really like to eat pumpkin pumpkin pie with my family.

The williby gap in vermont is awesome. I also like to play at a playground in newport. I like to do chores around the house. My favorite animal is a black lab.

My favorite book is Holes and my favorite tv show is The Stinky And Dirty Show. My favorite bird is a blue bird. I like catching fish in the summer and then releasing them. I also like maple trees because they give maple syrup. I love hot coco because it's warm and tastes good.

I like snow because I can make tunnels in snow banks and make snowmen and also slide on ice. I also like dirt because dirt. I like school field trips because you get a lot of energy out and it's very fun. I also like going hiking because I get to see good views and I get to see a lot of animals. I really like riding my atvs and going on rides with my parents and riding my bike in my driveway.

I like the old stone house in Brownington Vermont because they have traditions and its history. I like the watchtower near the old stone house because there are spots there where you can see awesome views and you also can find a geo cash in the woods near there and I like riding my bike to the watchtower with my parents.
