Subject: Notice of Data Breach

Dear <<MemberFirstName>> <<MemberLastName>>,

We are writing to inform you of a data security incident that may have affected your payment card information. We take the privacy and security of your information very seriously and are sending this letter to inform you about steps we have taken to protect your payment card information, and steps you can take to protect your information as well.

What Happened? On November 7, 2018 we learned of a potential data security incident involving the unauthorized installation of malware by a third party on our e-commerce web platform. As soon as we discovered the incident, we took immediate steps to secure payment card information belonging to our customers. We also launched an investigation. We retained both a software development expert and a leading forensic firm to determine what happened and whether customer payment card information had been accessed or acquired without authorization.

What Information Was Involved? We believe that malware installed on our e-commerce web platform by a third party could have comprised payment card information belonging to customers who purchased products from September 27, 2018 to November 7, 2018. The affected information may have included names, payment card numbers, expiration dates, billing addresses, phone numbers and security codes. E-mail addresses may also have been affected. No other personal information (for example, Social Security number and/or date of birth) was impacted.

What Are We Doing? Upon discovering this incident, we took the steps described above. We also reported the incident to the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") and will provide whatever cooperation is necessary to hold the perpetrators accountable. In addition, we reported the matter to the payment card brands in order to help protect your payment card information and to help prevent fraudulent activity. We are also providing you with information about steps that you can take to help protect your personal information. Finally, we have taken steps to enhance the security of customer information and our e-commerce web platform in order to help prevent similar incidents from occurring in the future.

What You Can Do: You can follow the recommendations on the following page to protect your personal information. We recommend that you review your current and past credit and debit card account statements for discrepancies or unusual activity. STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO FURTHER PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

Review Your Account Statements and Notify Law Enforcement of Suspicious Activity: As a precautionary measure, we recommend that you remain vigilant and review your account statements and credit reports closely. If you detect any suspicious activity on an account, you should promptly notify the financial institution or company with which the account is maintained. You should also promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidence of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, your state attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC").

Copy of Credit Report: You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting agencies once every 12 months by visiting <http://www.annualcreditreport.com/>, calling toll-free 877-322-8228, or by completing an Annual Credit Report Request Form and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348. You can also contact one of the following three national credit reporting agencies:

Equifax	Experian	TransUnion	Free Annual Report
P.O. Box 105851 Atlanta, GA 30348 1-800-525-6285 www.equifax.com	P.O. Box 9532 Allen, TX 75013 1-888-397-3742 www.experian.com	P.O. Box 1000 Chester, PA 19016 1-877-322-8228 www.transunion.com	P.O. Box 105281 Atlanta, GA 30348 1-877-322-8228 www.annualcreditreport.com

Fraud Alert: You may want to consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. An initial fraud alert is free and will stay on your credit file for at least 90 days. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact any of the three credit reporting agencies identified above. Additional information is available at <http://www.annualcreditreport.com>.

Security Freeze: In some U.S. states, you have the right to put a security freeze on your credit file. Placing a security freeze should be provided at no cost to you. This will prevent new credit from being opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate the freeze. A security freeze is designed to prevent potential creditors from accessing your credit report without your consent. As a result, using a security freeze may interfere with or delay your ability to obtain credit. You must separately place a security freeze on your credit file with each credit reporting agency. In order to place a security freeze, you may be required to provide the consumer reporting agency with information that identifies you including your full name, Social Security number, date of birth, current and previous addresses, a copy of your state-issued identification card, and a recent utility bill, bank statement or insurance statement.

Additional Free Resources: You can obtain information from the consumer reporting agencies, the FTC or from your respective state Attorney General about steps you can take toward preventing identity theft. You may report suspected identity theft to local law enforcement, including to the FTC or to the Attorney General in your state. Residents of Maryland, North Carolina, and Rhode Island can obtain more information from their Attorneys General using the contact information below.
