Re: Vermont Public Records Act request

Dear Mr. Blutstein:

I write in follow-up to my voicemail message with regards to your Public Records Act (“PRA”) request dated February 16, 2020. Your request was:

- “1. Job application, resume, and salary history of assistant attorney general Molly Gray (criminal division).
2. Emails sent by Ms. May [sic] since January 1, 2020 that mention Tim Ashe (Senate President Pro Tem).”

As I mentioned in my voicemail, the PRA applies to documents and records, not information. As such, I will need further clarity with regards to your request for “salary history.” Please feel free to call (802-828-3737) to discuss which record related to AAG Gray’s salary history you are requesting. In the meantime, the current salaries of all Vermont State employees may be found online here: <https://data.vermont.gov/widgets/jgqy-2smf>.

As to AAG Gray's job application and resume, these documents are exempt from the PRA under 1 V.S.A. § 317(c)(7).

Finally, as to your request for emails from AAG Gray to Sen. Ashe, a search was performed, and no responsive documents were located.

If you believe any of this response to be in error, you may appeal to Joshua Diamond, Deputy Attorney General at 109 State St, Montpelier, Vermont 05609.

Sincerely,
