We take the protection and proper use of your information very seriously. For this reason, we are contacting you directly to explain the circumstances of PaperlessPay’s data security incident.

What Happened

On March 20, 2020, PaperlessPay provided notice to Fareway Stores that an unauthorized individual gained access to its server that hosts our payroll data. Although PaperlessPay was unable to confirm the extent of the access, it did confirm that an unauthorized individual gained access to its server at least once on February 18, 2020, and that the unauthorized individual had the ability to query any payroll data within the server.

PaperlessPay could not confirm that any of our payroll data was accessed or acquired by an unauthorized individual from within its database, but was unable to eliminate the possibility. Because we take the protection of our current and former employees’ personal information very seriously, we are providing you with notice of the possible unauthorized disclosure and one (1) year of identity monitoring at no cost to you to allow you to take steps to protect your personal information.

What Information Was Involved

PaperlessPay was unable to confirm whether your information was actually accessed or acquired by an unauthorized individual. However, as a result of this incident, some of your personal information may have been accessed and/or acquired without authorization, including your first and last name, <<ClientDef1(Breach Details Variable Text)>>.

We are notifying you so you can take appropriate steps to protect your personal information.

To help relieve concerns following this incident, we have secured TransUnion to provide identity monitoring at no cost to you for one (1) year. TransUnion is an industry leader and functions as a first point of contact for credit-related issues, which allows it to efficiently furnish timely notification about credit-related issues to individuals enrolled in its identity monitoring service.

Free Credit Report. It is recommended that you remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring your credit report for unauthorized activity over the next twenty-four months, and immediately report incidents of suspected identity theft to both your financial provider and law enforcement.

You may obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, once every 12 months from each of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies. You may also seek to have information relating to fraudulent transactions removed from your credit report. To order your annual free credit report, please visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll free at 1-877-322-8228.

You can also order your annual free credit report by mailing a completed Annual Credit Report Request Form (available from the U.S. Federal Trade Commission's ("FTC") website at www.consumer.ftc.gov) to: Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281.

For Colorado, Georgia, Maine, Maryland, New Jersey, Puerto Rico, and Vermont residents: You may obtain one or more (depending on the state) additional copies of your credit report, free of charge. You must contact each of the credit reporting agencies directly to obtain such additional report(s).

Fraud Alert. You may place a fraud alert in your file by calling one of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies above. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit.

Security Freeze. You have the ability to place a security freeze on your credit report free of charge.

A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you may be able to use an online process, an automated telephone line, or a written request to any of the three credit reporting agencies listed above. The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; (5) legible copy of a government issued identification card; (6) legible copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement that displays your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue; and (7) any applicable incident report or complaint filed with a law enforcement agency.

Federal Trade Commission and State Attorneys General Offices. If you believe you are the victim of identity theft or have reason to believe your personal information has been misused, you should immediately contact the Federal Trade Commission and/or the Attorney General's office in your home state. You may also contact these agencies for information on how to prevent or avoid identity theft.

You may contact the Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580, <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/features/feature-0014-identity-theft>, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338).
