re: Vermont Public Records Act Request

Dear Ms. Bauman,

I write in response to your Vermont Access to Public Records Act request dated April 23, 2020, and to follow-up on my April 28, 2020 letter to you. As with the April 23 letter, my communications are via email because, as we agreed, it is the most effective way to communicate under the COVID-19 circumstances.

Attached to the email that accompanies this letter are the documents that are responsive to your request for emails between attorneys or staff of the Vermont Attorney General's office and representatives of the pharmaceutical company Alkermes, including but not limited to Erin Hodges and Joey Lundbeck, which refer to abatement of the opioid crisis and Alkermes, or abatement of the opioid crisis and Vivitrol, for the period April 23, 2019 to the present.

Sincerely,

/s/

Jill S. Abrams
Assistant Attorney General

Good Morning Jill-

I coordinated this call with Attorney General Donovan through Will Sudbay. Will must have forwarded you to invitation.

I'm sorry that you can't join us. The call is about medication assisted treatment for opioid use disorder and the opioid litigation.

If you would like to set up another call to discuss the topic, please let me know. I am available at 11 tomorrow.

Thanks!

Joe

Hi,

I'm not sure how this call was scheduled, but I have another meeting at this time. Perhaps you could email me and give me a sense of what the call is about and suggest some other times to talk. I am free tomorrow morning at 11.

Jill
