Please accept this as my appeal of the Vermont Attorney General's denial by failure to provide responsive records supporting his arguments contained in prior correspondence, upon which further records requests have been submitted.

Again, I do not offer clerical services should you be unable to keep track of what statements you make and web links you send in lieu of public records request responses.

I have asked Charity to pass the duties of response to someone on staff more capable of providing proper, legal responses. I have also made it clear that I am not making public records requests to the "Attorney General's Office", but to the Vermont Attorney General, and as such responses by staff are ultimately his liability and final responsibility to address.

Thank you,

David Shaddy, RN
