Re: Response to Public Records Request Appeal.

Dear Mr. Shaddy:

I write in response to your May 26, 2020, public records appeal.

In your appeal, you write, "please accept this as my appeal of the Vermont Attorney General's denial by failure to provide responsive records supporting his arguments contained in prior correspondence, upon which further records requests have been submitted." This appeal does not reference a specific records request or response.

You have made approximately forty-four (44) public records requests to the Vermont Attorney General's Office since March 26, 2020. Considering the volume of public records requests, and the failure to identify a specific request and response from which you seek relief, a determination would require speculation. Consequently, it is not possible to grant your appeal.

For the reasons set forth above, your appeal is denied. You may seek judicial review of this determination from the Civil Division of the Vermont Superior Court pursuant to 1 V.S.A. S 319.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, consisting of several overlapping loops and a long horizontal stroke, positioned above the printed name and title.
