Hi, Justin,

I write in response to your request for public records received today. Your request was for:

“...internal memoranda, notes and communications regarding two conference calls that the Attorney General’s Office was invited by Facebook to join that were also joined by the Department of Homeland Security’s Countering Foreign Interference Task Force and the FBI Foreign Influence Task Force. The call took place on March 12, 2020, and the Office was invited to join in an email sent by Facebook’s Will Castleberry on March 5, 2020,” and

“internal memoranda, notes and communications regarding a previous conference call with the same parties, but for which I do not have a date.”

The Vermont Attorney General’s Office has no records responsive to your request.

Thank you,
Charity
